

RACING AT MONMOUTH PARK

PICKPOCKET IN AN AMIABLE MOOD.

HE WON THE SHREWSBURY HANDICAP WITH MUCH EASE.

The financial success of the Monmouth Park meeting is, perhaps, not yet assured, but the attendance yesterday was unexpectedly large. The weather was not such as to attract people to the course. Some rain fell, and more was threatened, and the air was like the steam that escapes from a condenser. The sun blazed wherever it fell.

Four favorites won, and two fell by the wayside. Stonelot failed to capture the first race owing to the constitutional inability of Lambley to exert himself to the utmost. Stonelot needs a more powerful rider. He was beaten only a head by Steve Estes, an uncertain brute from the Marvin Daily stable, to whom he was conceding no less than twenty-nine pounds. St. Floran was very lame when he was pulled up. His racing days are numbered. If the Messrs Morris would escape frequent disappointments, it would be wise for them to retire this patched-up son of St. Elmo and Fen Follett. He has outlived his usefulness on the turf, and his value as a sire is not being enhanced by his successive defeats by horses of poor class.

Mars, his stable companion, might have won the Shrewsbury Handicap, if the rains had made the track muddy, for Mars revels in mud, and has won nearly all of his races when the going was deep and soft. He was made the favorite in the betting, because of his popularity, though the track was dry and dusty after the shower. But Pickpocket, with the best of the weights, and ridden by Midgley, for whom he ran kindly all the way, won the race very easily.

Pickpocket did not like colored jockeys and will not do his best for them, as a rule. He ran kindly when McDermott, a white jockey, rode him at Sheephead Bay, and was a most winning horse under the gentle guidance of Midgley.

Midgley, by the way, is improving. He is regaining his lost weight, and is in himself. A few more wins will set him in his feet again. He won the first and fifth races was second in the last and third in the July Stakes.

Garrison rode St. Michael in the second race, but all his skill availed nothing. St. Michael was badly beaten, and was ridden in a plain, straightforward, simple, common-sense manner, won easily by a length.

Hydebank won the July Stakes without being ridden, and won the Hyde Park Stakes, at Washington Park, a few minutes later. St. Floran's good fortune in the big two-year-olds stakes continued.

M. F. Dwyer took the last two races, and that and the Hambley 3-100, to be sold for $1,250. and Hambley for $1,125. They were in fact, some poor prospects. The pair is worth at least $10,000, and may be declared several times, but the sound of the guns is not heard.

DETAILS OF THE RACING.

FIRST RACE—Handicap; $15 each, $1,00 added. Seven furlongs.

Betting. $1. P.

Marcus Daly's b. & c. Steve Estes, by Springfield—Madeline, 4 yrs., 105 lbs.—Henderson, 1 5-1 1-1 M. F. Dwyer's b. & c. St. Floran, 1 1-1 1-1 J. A. H. & D. H. Morris' b. & c. (Lambley) 2 1-1 1-1 Flora, 4, 120 lbs.—Time—1:24.

Domey did not start. Steve Estes made the running at a slow pace. As the three entered the stretch Stonelot moved up on the outside, while St. Floran waited for an opening on the rail. Midgley pulled out a trifle and Littlefield made a bold effort to go through. Then Midgley pulled in again and shut him out, forcing Littlefield to check his mount suddenly so avoid an accident. St. Floran dropped a head, but the judges could not allow it, and the horse was placed as they finished.

SECOND RACE—$15 each, $1,000 added; special weights. One mile.

Betting. $1. P.

Washington Stable's ch. c. Sport, by Winsted—Soulard, 1 2-1 1-1 W. Dominey's b. & c. Rockwell, 1 1-1 1-1 Gorden & Daly's b. & c. St. Michael, 1 2-1 1-1 Certainty, 1 1-1 1-1 Time—1:14.

Miss Mandie did not run. Sport took the lead at the start, made all the running and won easily by a length. Rocke second, three lengths before St. Michael. Littlefield third, two lengths before St. Floran. Littlefield claimed a foul, but the judges could not allow it, and the horses were placed as they finished.

Dobkins, Declare, Miles, Daldene, Senator Grady and Touscous were withdrawn, and Sam Lucas was added. St. Maximus won with Hyderated for half a mile, and then the favorite "counted" him, as the saying goes, and won with a serious effort at a length. St. Maximus second, three lengths before Sam Lucas, who beat Longshanks two lengths.

FOURTH RACE—SHREWSBURY HANDICAP; $50 each, $2,000 added. One mile and a half. Betting. $1. P.

Pickpocket, running under a gentle pull, took the lead at the last furlong pole, and coming away at the end won very easily by two and a half lengths.
